

black tie Cinzia Designs Showroom

Boutique owners looking to add more summertime accessories to their shops should stop by Cinzia Designs' new showroom. Located on Scottsdale Road just north of Shea Boulevard, the high-end eyewear company's new studio provides a wide variety of sunglasses, readers, cases and necklaces for retailers to showcase in their shops. Since being featured in the gift bags of 2007's Academy and Emmy awards shows, these rims are now seen on everyone from the sexy Brooke Mueller (Charlie Sheen's new arm candy) to the dimply Mario Lopez. Chic ladies and gents around our city will want to be seen wearing the vibrant colors from Cinzia's Spring and Summer 2008 collection, such as raspberry haze and electric blue, along with other dazzling colors — any of which will make lounging at the pool even more stylish this summer. Animal prints are also going to be popular with bookworms lazily sipping an iced coffee and reading a certain fashionable and intriguing magazine in coffeehouses while getting away from the heat. However people choose to spend their summer, Cinzia's sunglasses and readers will add to any boutique owner's accessory selection.
